S5 course 4 25/26

Read the text and choose the correct answer for each gap.

Many people have tried …..
1 A. to give up B. putting down C. to put down D. giving up smoking at some point in their lives, and these days many of us …..

2 A. attempted B. are attempting C. attempt D. had attempted to stop taking …..

3 A. other B. the other C. another D. others substance which is not cigarettes, but which ……

4 A.should B. can C. might D. is able to be killing the same number of people ……

5 A.that B. so C. than D. as tobacco, or even more. I am talking about sugar.

When I went to the doctor five years ago, he told me that sugar ……
6 A. would B. will C. shall D. was kill me one day if I didn't avoid ……

7 A. eating B. eat C. to eating D. to eat

it. My only chance of long-term survival, said the doctor, was …..
8 A. cutting down B. putting out C. setting down D. cutting out all sugar from my diet. Before that day, I ……

9 A. have never tried B. don't tried C. was never trying D. had never tried to quit anything; …….. ,

10 A. although B. so C. even though D. however

I didn't think it would be too difficult. "I have achieved difficult things in my life, much more difficult than that," I thought. It wasn't true.
I didn't know how difficult it was to stop smoking, or drinking alcohol, because I …….
11 A. wasn't ever B. had never been C. was never addicted to anything, but when I stopped eating sugar, I realized that sugar is a very powerful drug. I think it ……

12 A. would have been B. must be C. had been easier if I had been addicted to nicotine, for example, instead of sugar. The first few weeks or months I ……
13 A. used to dreaming B. used to dream C. was dreaming that I was eating chocolate or cakes, and then I woke up in the morning and my body was crying for sugar.

It's been 3 months now, and I …….
14 A. have eaten B. have been eating C. ate very, very little sugar in that time; only the added sugar that food manufacturers put in some of their processed products, like bread, tinned tomato, etc. I am very happy because I don't crave sweet things any more, and I feel …….

15 A. very B. many C. much healthier and energetic than a few months ago.

Feedback

1 Correct answer: to give up
▸ When you try to do something, you make an effort to do something. Maybe you will be able to do it or maybe not: I tried to lift the box, but it was too heavy. I tried to find my lost keys but I couldn't. ▸ When you try doing something, you do something as an experiment to see if it works or if it's effective for achieving certain result: 'I need to relax' 'Why don't you try doing some relaxation exercises?'▸ Give up is a phrasal verb that means 'to stop doing something or having something'.
2 Correct answer: are attempting
▸ We use the present continuous for actions in progress now or 'around now'.
3 Correct answer: another
▸ Before a noun, we can use:
▸ another + singular noun: Can we talk another day?▸ other + plural noun: At the party, there were our friends and other students we didn't know. ▸ the other + singular noun: I want the other jacket, not this one.

4 Correct answer: might
▸ We use might to express probability, to talk about things that may or may not be true.
5 Correct answer: as ▸ We say the same ... as 6 Correct answer: would
▸ Will (direct speech) ⇒ would (reported speech).
7 Correct answer: eating
▸ We say avoid doing something to mean 'not to allow yourself to do something'
8 Correct answer: cutting out
▸ Cut out is a phrasal verb. If you cut out something, you stop eating something or doing something, especially because it is bad for your health.

9 Correct answer: had never tried
▸ We use past perfect to talk about an event that happened before another event in the past.
10 Correct answer: however

▸ We always use a comma after however, and there is never a comma after although.

11 Correct answer: had never been

▸ We use past perfect to talk about an event that happened before another event in the past.

12 Correct answer: would have been

▸ In third conditional sentences we use past perfect in the if clause and would/might/could + have + past participle in the main clause.

13 Correct answer: used to dream

▸ We can say used to + infinitive to talk about past habitual actions we don't do any more, or past states which aren't true any more.

14 Correct answer: have eaten

▸ We use the present perfect simple (NOT the continuous) when we talk about how many things or how much of something we have done (how much sugar), because we are focusing on the completion of the action.

15 Correct answer: much

▸ We can modify a comparative with much/a lot + more to say that there is a big difference, and we can modify a comparative with a bit/a little + more to say that there is a small difference.